Gallatin, a three touchdown underdog, stunned the unbeaten Panthers with a touchdown in the first four minutes of play. The Green Wave came out to start the second half and rolled up seven consecutive first downs as they ripped off 80 yards for a game tying touchdown.

A determined defense stopped Portland on the 20 late in the fourth quarter and it appeared that the two teams would battle to a 13-13 deadlock. Fullback LeRoy Grizzle burst through center f an eight-yard gain but fumble the ball as he was tackled. Por land's Glenn Glover scooped up t ball on the 23, shook off a tackl and raced for the touchdown th broke the game open.

The Green Wave stormed rig back following the kickoff on t passing combination of Al Wa Jones to Woodson Dickerson carry to the Portland 19. Jon was spilled on the 36 trying a other pass and with seconds r maining in the game was tackle hard just as he attempted anoth aerial. Guard Jim Collins grabbe the ball in mid-air and raced yards for the final Panther touc down.

Gallatin went ahead with jus four minutes gone in the firs quarter as Jerry Reid raced 6 yards around his own right en on the first Wave scrimmag play. Charles Greer, the outstand ing lineman on the field, booted the extra point.

Just as the first quarter ended John Collins flopped on a fumbled punt return on the Gallatin 15. Glover and Bobby Neal each carried the ball twice with Glover going over from the two for the tally.

The 20-yard Gallatin punt went out of bounds on the Wave 23 late in the second quarter. Glover then circled right end for the touchdown to put the Panthers ahead 13-7 at the half.

Gallatin, which ripped the cen ter of the Portland line at will marched for the tying touchdown early in the third period with a nine-yard pass, Jones to Norman Herrod, for the tally.

Portland, Lebanon Top Grid Program

By RUSS MELVIN

IF LEBANON expects to win tomorrow night's big battle with Portland, Coach Joe Atkinson is going to have to figure out a way to stop the "Touchdown Twins"—Glenn Glover and Bobby Neal.

In the last 13 games, Portland has been held to one touchdown just one time. The Panthers won that one anyway, 6 to 0. In the other 12 contests, Portland has tallied at least three touchdowns.

Last year Coach Atkinson figured out a way to beat Portland—match 'em touchdown for touchdown. And that's what the Blue Devils did, scoring first and then trading tallies the rest of the way. At the end, Lebanon was ahead 25-21 but Portland was down on the goal line ready to go over again as time ran out.

This year Lebanon has lost some valuable linemen and two of last year's starting backfield. But Fullback Clifton Tribble, the man who outshone Neal and Glover in that one battle, and Quarterback David Robison are back to spark the attack.

In Portland's opening win over Murfreesboro, Glover scored four touchdowns as the Panthers romped 28-6. Last week Neal punched across three and Glenn one as Portland downed Nashville Central 26-7.

According to THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN Action Ratings, the Portland Purple Panthers are a slim one point choice over Lebanon in the top game of the week.

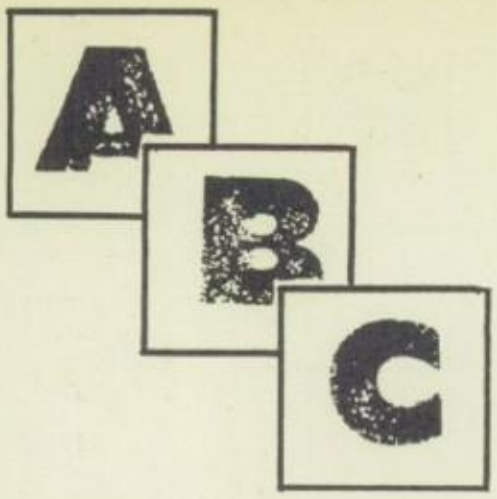
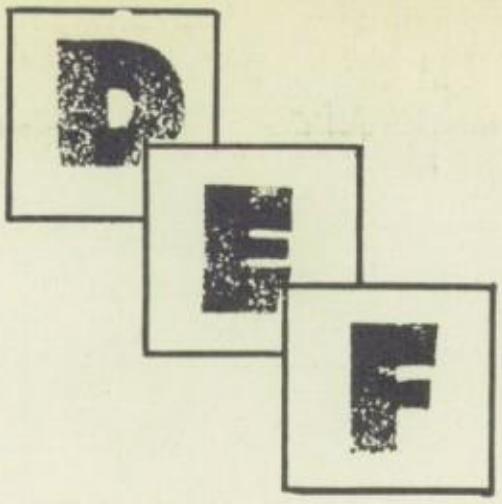
Class poems

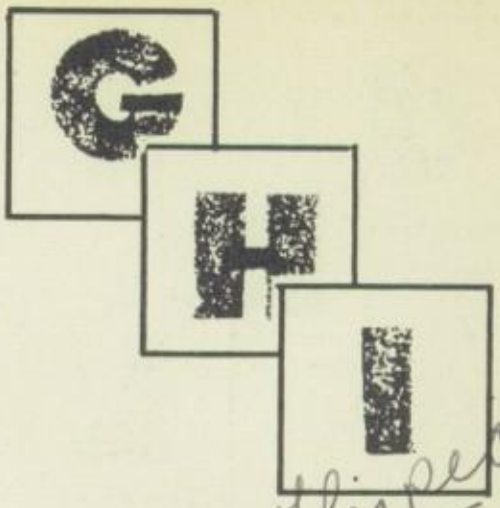
TWO CHAPTERS

Mary Ellen Williams

The final page is now complete
And the pen is laid aside.
One chapter of life is closed for aye
What ever else betide.
We slowly turn the pages back
To muse the days we've passed,
To stamp their memories on the heart
As long as life shall last.
But other chapters are in store;
There's more than history.
So with trembling hands we take the pen;
What will the future be?
The answer comes in accents clear:
If labors do not cease,
If hearts are true, and aims are one
You'll write a masterpiece.







This picture is so true.

We, the 1953 GRADUATING CLASS of S. C. H. S., being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby making void all our former statements and declarations.

To Mr. Hurnter and the faculty, we leave our deepest gratitude and sincere appreciation for their helpfulness through the years.

To the Junior Class, we leave our skill on "How to Get Out of Class."

To the Sophomore Class, we leave our hopes that they will make it through the last half!

To the Freshman Class, we leave a new outlook on life—the outlook of a sophomore.

The individuals of the class leave the following:

I, Harold Ragan, leave with much surprise!

I, Jackie White, leave my mischievousness to Jimmy Phillips, as if he needed it!!

We, Glenn Glover and Bobby Neal, leave our ability to play football to the future teams of S. C. H. S.

I, Jane Bell, leave some of my sophistication to a few of the silly girls of S. C. H. S.

We, Mary Frances Ferguson and Minnie Sou Perdue, leave our shortness to Lois Beasley.

I, Billy Freeland, leave gladly—with Juanita!

We, Jimmy Johnson and David Jones, leave our place as football managers to Donnie Wiseman and Dean Sheucraft.

I, David Kirkham, leave my F. F. A. work to Wayne Cummings who has such a good start already.

I, James Leath, leave a few of my extra pounds to Charles Wilkerson.

I, June Deasy, leave my ability to debate to Pat Wright.

We, Virginia Kepley and Florence McCloud, leave our smiles to Barbara Hunter who can use them effectively.

I, Ray Hodges, leave my ability to handle Mrs. Jernigan in History to Ronnie Atchison.

I, Jean Cook, leave my jolliness to everyone at S. C. H. S. who would like to lighten the load with a ray of sunshine.

I, Sue Paul, leave my capacity for getting into trouble—gladly!

I, Clarice Adams, leave my artistic ability to Yvonne Lee.

I, Alice Shirrell, leave my sincerity to Sarah Dye.

I, Frank Wilkes, leave—but take every thing with me.

I, Eugene Garrett, leave with fond memories of carefree high school days.

I, Harold Denning, leave with no regrets!

I, Betty Devasher, leave my unique ways to Janette Gourley.

I, J. P. Crafton, leave—I hope!!

I, Kenneth Dorris, leave my ability to get along with other people to Joe Hester.

I, Wayne Gregory, leave—glad to get out—finally!

I, Perry Harper, leave my ready wit to Joe Elliott.

I, Bobby White, leave my cheerfulness to Jimmy Graves.

I, Mary Elizabeth Webb, leave my ability to stay on the honor roll to my younger sister, Barbara.

We, Charles Williams and Rhea Chandler, leave our determination to get out of school to the members of the freshman class.

I, Jim Collins, leave my position as guard on the football team to my younger brother, John!

I, Donald Collins, leave—and surprise you by going on to college.

This document having been drawn up as our last will and testament, we, the Senior Class, do hereby leave, with great hopes for the future and kind regards for all our underclassmen!

Class Prophecy

S.C.H.S

May, 1953

As I was riding on a plane from San Francisco to New York, I met an old classmate, June Deasy, who graduated with me from S. C. H. S. in 1953. We began talking about the good times that we had in school and it seemed our minds were running on the same thing, for we both were wondering what had happened to our old classmates. Just then the airplane hostess, Sue Paul, came through. She had found an old crystal ball that someone had left on the plane. As we began looking into the ball together, the first place that came into view was S. C. H. S. There was Ray Hodges, the new principal and his efficient secretary, Mary Elizabeth Webb. Then we heard singing from the auditorium where Beatrice Long was directing her excellent Glee Club. She had as her new assistant, Jean Cook, who was also the piano teacher.

Suddenly the football field came into view. There was James (Catfish) Leath who was still trying to have as good a football team as Coach McDonald did in 1952. Speaking of football, Bobby Neal and Glenn Glover, whom we knew as the "Touchdown Twins," back in high school, still have their football abilities. Glenn is playing professional football now and Bobby is coaching in a small town in Maryland. Bobby isn't married because he is still looking for the rich girl. Looking back into the crystal, we still see the school but the scene has changed to the gym where Joan Harris has her basketball girls around her telling them about the team she used to play on when Doris Brown was playing too. Doris seems to love children since she has two and is teaching Sunday School where her husband is preacher. That reminds us that some more of our classmates married right after graduation. Mrs. James Dickens (Barbara Groves) lives on a big cattle farm in Mitchellville. Alice Sherrill and her husband are the new owners of Shell City Cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Freeland (Juanita Street) are living on a farm near Oak Grove—raising chincillas.

Well, we have talked long enough, and we must see what the crystal ball can tell us about our other classmates. Soon we see a beauty shop in Portland owned by Florence McCloud. Her employees are Marie Brown and Betty Devasher who seem to be very busy. The door opens and in walks Mary Frances Ferguson who is teaching Physical Education at Gallatin High School where Laura Ruth Claiborne is teaching History and Eugene Garrett is Agriculture Instructor. The door opens wide and in walks Magdalene Keene and Minnie Lou Perdue, who work at Booker's Store. While waiting, they were glancing through some papers and magazines on the table. There was an advertisement of Jane Bell's Modeling School and Perry Harper's Electrical Appliance Shop. Edna McCormack is Perry's secretary and his main salesmen were Rhea Chandler, Charles Williams, and Kenneth Dorris. Then Minnie turned to the entertainment page and saw that an orchestra with Joyce Freeland was appearing at the Portland Dinner Club whose manager is Jimmy Johnson (still liking the job of manager). "The Mischievous Two" starring Jackie White and Harold Ragen is playing at the Strand Theatre which is owned by Frank Wilkes (rising in his position) and the manager is J. P. Crafton. Also on the entertainment page was a picture of David Jones and his band who are signed up with the Grand Ole Opera.

Now the scene is changing from the beauty shop to the church. We hear the wedding march. Here comes the bride and groom, Mary Ellen Williams and Donald Collins. We see Jim Collins as his cousin's best man and Lorene Williams as her niece's bridesmaid. Wayne Gregory, the preacher, has just married the couple and we notice Jane Williams and Margaret Parker, who own the Portland Kindergarten, throwing rice at the newlyweds as they leave. Then the Photographer, David Kirkham, is waiting outside the church; and Bobby White, owner of White's Buick Motor Co., drives the couple away. Coming out the church door, we see Harold Denning, dressed in a Navy uniform with lots of medals attached. Next, we see Yvonne Cummings, Editor of the Upper Sumner Press, and Clarice Adams, dress designer at Chandler's Store, talking on the church steps.

My goodness! We got so lost in the wedding viewed in the crystal that our plane landed. Sue helped us off the plane and then we had to part, for June was going to a Debate Convention in Philadelphia and I—I must continue my sightseeing trip around the country. After thinking our conversation over, it seems that no matter how many new friends you meet, you can't ever forget the old ones.

Dear Brooks,

Is it very good to be a senior. I use to think that it would be good to leave this place but as it is about over it isn't as good as it seemed. It will make you think of the time you first started until now. June, I didn't know much about you until we were in the seventh grade together. I will always remember how you helped me with my themes and things. I think that Ricketts is sure a lucky boy to get to go with a girl as cute and nice as you are. I learnt this year that people could trust you when we were in history and having a test that you didn't want to let me copy. After this you told me you had promised a boy that you wouldn't let anyone copy. I wish there was more girls that went up here that had a personality like yours. June, there are a lot of things that I would like to say but don't know how to say them. I hope you find happiness all of your life and "Good Luck" to you. I will never forget you.

Love always
Charlie W.

Dear June,
I have enjoyed relating with you this year and last. You are, I think the sweetest girl I have ever known. Always remember the good times we had on our debate trips and at lunch. I have enjoyed being in school with you. I have known you for a long time.

ond score, raced 23 yards with a fumble for the third and 55 yards with an intercepted pass for the fourth.

Gallatin, a three touchdown un- derdog, stunned the unbeaten Panthers with a touchdown in the first four minutes of play. The Green Wave came out to start the second half and rolled up seven consecutive first downs as they ripped off 80 yards for a game tying touchdown.

A determined defense stopped Portland on the 20 late in the fourth quarter and it appeared that the two teams would battle to a 13-13 deadlock. Fullback LeRoy Grizzle burst through center f an eight-yard gain but fumbl the ball as he was tackled. Por land's Glenn Glover scooped up t ball on the 23, shook off a tackl and raced for the touchdown th broke the game open.

The Green Wave stormed rig back following the kickoff on t passing combination of Al Wa Jones to Woodson Dickerson carry to the Portland 19. Jon was spilled on the 36 trying a other pass and with seconds r maining in the game was tackl hard just as he attempted anoth aerial. Guard Jim Collins grabbe the ball in mid-air and raced yards for the final Panther touc down.

Gallatin went ahead with four minutes gone in the firs quarter as Jerry Reid raced 6 yards around his own right end on the first Wave scrimmag play. Charles Greer, the outstand ing lineman on the field, booted the extra point.

Just as the first quarter ended John Collins flopped on a fumbled punt return on the Gallatin 15. Glover and Bobby Neal each car- ried the ball twice with Glover going over from the two for the tally.

The 20-yard Gallatin punt went out of bounds on the Wave 23 late in the second quarter. Glover then circled right end for the touch- down to put the Panthers ahead 13-7 at the half.

Gallatin, which ripped the cen ter of the Portland line at will marched for the tying touchdown early in the third period with a nine-yard pass, Jones to Norma Herrod, for the tally.

Portland, Lebanon Top Grid Program

By RUSS MELVIN

IF LEBANON expects to win tomorrow night's big battle with Portland, Coach Joe Atkinson is going to have to figure out a way to stop the "Touchdown Twins"—Glenn Glover and Bobby Neal.

In the last 13 games, Portland has been held to one touchdown just one time. The Panthers won that one anyway, 6 to 0. In the other 12 contests, Portland has tallied at least three touchdowns.

Last year Coach Atkinson figured out a way to beat Portland—match 'em touchdown for touchdown. And that's what the Blue Devils did, scoring first and then trading tallies the rest of the way. At the end, Lebanon was ahead 25-21 but Portland was down on the goal line ready to go over again as time ran out.

This year Lebanon has lost some valuable linemen and two of last year's starting backfield. But Fullback Clifton Tribble, the man who outshone Neal and Glover in that one battle, and Quarterback David Robison are back to spark the attack.

In Portland's opening win over Murfreesboro, Glover scored four touchdowns as the Panthers romped 28-6. Last week Neal punched across three and Glenn one as Portland downed Nashville Central 26-7.

According to THE NASHVILLE TENNESSEAN Action Ratings, the Portland Purple Panthers are a slim one point choice over Lebanon in the top game of the week.

The Portland Panthers chalked up their sixth win of the season last Friday night with a 51 to 6 win over Hartsville in their 1952 Homecoming game.

It was a gala homecoming for the Panthers with the alumni wearing white cards with purple and white ribbons and the crowning of the queen, Miss Joyce Freeland by the co-captains, Glover and Neal, at half-time.

Once again it was the Touchdown Twins, Glenn Glover and Bobby Neal, who led the Portland onslaught. Glover averaged 23 yards per run and Neal 14. Glover broke loose on three long touchdown runs of 30, 35 and 70 yards and Neal tallied twice with runs of 16, and 4 yards.

Carl Pike, the Portland quarterback, scored once on a 40-yard run after picking up a Hartsville fumble. Bobby White caught a 10-yard pass from Glover to score once and Denning raced 30 yards to pay dirt on a reverse.

Vandy Gets Portland Stars

Glenn Glover and Bobby Neal, two of the outstanding backs in Middle Tennessee, yesterday signed grants-in-aid with Vanderbilt university.

The signing of Glover came as a big surprise to many people because as late as Saturday night it was reported he was headed for Tennessee.

Glover was named to THE TENNESSEAN All-Midstate team for two straight years, both times being named honorary captain for drawing the most votes from the coaches, Besides being a great offensive threat, the Portland high athlete also backs up the line and is considered one of the finest defensive players in the area.

Neal and Glover teamed for five years to give Portland the best 1-2 punch of any team in the Midstate.
